

Notices for the Solway Plain Team for the week commencing 11th November 2018 – Remembrance Sunday

Welcome to our Services today. We invite Christians of all traditions to receive the bread and wine at our services of Holy Communion. If you are not a communicant member of a church, we would invite you to come forward to receive a blessing

As we mark the centenary of the end of the First World War, we meet to remember those who have died in wartime and to repent of all that causes conflict in the world. We turn to worship God and to follow Christ, who has brought the good news of God's kingdom of peace.

Collect for today

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Six Rs of Reconciliation

Researching Relating Relief
Risk Reconciling Resourcing

Let us remember those who have died for their country in war, those we knew, and all who have given their lives for freedom, justice and the hope of peace.

As we look forward and seek the ways of peace and reconciliation, you might like to say this prayer:

Lord, strengthen our hearts, hands and minds, to work together for peace; to see you in one another, And to seek your kingdom above all things; that your will may be seen to be done, and your Kingdom come, through Jesus Christ, the Lord of lords and King of kings. Amen.

Readings for this week

Hebrews 9: 24 - 28

Christ sacrificed himself and appeared once and for all before God on our behalf, ending the need for an annual sacrifice of atonement.

Mark 1: 14 - 20

Jesus begins his ministry by calling people to repent because God's kingdom is near. The first disciples – Simon and Andrew, James and John – hear his call and follow him.
