13th October 2024 – Trinity 20

Consider the true nature of the sacrifice we are called to make as members of the kingdom of God

Sunday Worship

Welcome to our Services today

We welcome Christians of all traditions to receive the bread and wine at our services of Holy Communion. If you are not a communicant member of a church, we would invite you to come forward to receive a blessing.

It is our practice that those who don't wish to drink the wine from the common cup, receive the bread only, intincted by the priest before the distribution. Please respect others by not intincting the bread yourself.

Collect for today

God, the giver of life,
whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church:
by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will,
that we may share with the whole creation
the joys of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Bible Readings for today

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word is living and active. It is sharper than any two-edged sword. We must all render an account of ourselves. But Jesus, the great high priest, has passed into the heavens so we can approach the throne of God with boldness

Mark 10:17-31

Jesus tells a rich man that to inherit eternal life he needs to sell all his goods, give the money to those who are poor, and follow him. The disciples are concerned that no one can enter the kingdom of God and point out that they have left everything.

INEQE are now looking to engage with as many people as possible who are involved in the life and work of the diocese and the cathedral through a completely confidential and anonymous online survey which is open until Wednesday 6 November. As many as people as possible are encouraged to complete the survey found online at <https://ineqe.com/churchofengland/carlisle/>
